S.R.O. 178, dated 19th June 1959.—The following byelaws for the regulation or prohibition of the use or occupation of any street or public place by itinerant vendors or by other persons in the Dehu Road Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board, Dehu Road, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (13) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

BYELAWS FOR THE REGULATION OR PROHIBITION OF THE USE OR OCCUPATION OF ANY STREET OR PUBLIC PLACE BY ITINERANT
VENDORS OR BY OTHER PERSONS IN THE DEHU ROAD CANTON-MENT.

1. No itinerant vendor, hawker, pedlar, fortune teller, monkey juggler or other person shall use or occupy any street or public place for the sale of articles or for the exercise of any calling or the setting up of any booth or stall within the Cantonment limits, without obtaining the written permission of the Executive Officer, and without payment of the fee prescribed in this behalf in byelaw 3.

2. The written permission granted to any person under byelaw 1 shall specify the part of the Cantonment which such person may use or occupy for the sale of articles, or the exercise of his calling or setting up of a booth or stall:

Provided that no hawker, pedlar, fortune teller, or monkey juggler, shall carry on his trade or calling on any of the roads or places prohibited by the Cantonment Board by a resolution.

3. The following fees shall be charged for the use or occupation of any street or public place within the Cantonment limits for which permission has been granted under byelaw:—

(i) Itinerant vendor, hawker or pedlar of any commodity except grass, wood, charcoal or cow dung cakes:—

Twelve rupees for any period exceeding six months upto a maximum of twelve months.

Six rupees for any period exceeding one month upto a maximum of six months.

Ten naye paise per day upto a maximum of one month.

(ii) Persons using or occupying any street or public place for the sale of grass, wood, charcoal retailed from carts—25 naye paise per cart per diem.

(iii) Persons using or occupying any street or public place for the sale of bundles of grass, wood, or cowdung cakes, other than from carts—10 Naye Paise per diem.

(iv) Persons using or occupying any street or public place for the setting up of a booth or stall over an area not exceeding 25 square feet—25 naye paise per diem.

(v) Persons using or occupying any street or public place for the keeping of benches, tables, chairs, cycle stands etc. over an area not exceeding 25 square feet—rupee one per mensem.

4. Every person from whom fees are leviable under byelaw 3 shall pay in advance the fees due in the office of the Cantonment Board or to the official appointed by the Board in this behalf and obtain a receipt for the same.

5. If the Executive Officer is satisfied that any booth or stall set up under byelaw 1 is a nuisance, the owner or occupier thereof, may, by written notice, be required to remove such booth or stall within such time as may be specified therein.

6. Every stall, booth or erection shall be of such measurements as the Executive Officer may consider suitable with regard to the site proposed to be occupied.

7. All persons to whom permission has been granted under byelaw 1 shall keep their premises in a clean and sanitary condition and shall carry out all instructions given by the Executive Officer as regards cleanliness and sanitation.

8. The permission to be granted under these byelaws for setting up any booth or stall or for keeping any bench, table, etc., shall be in the form prescribed from time to time, by the Board for this purpose. The permission shall be valid for the period specified therein and shall not be transferable.

9. Any person committing a breach of any of these byelaws shall on conviction by a magistrate be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and, in the case of continuing breach, within an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day for the period during which such breach continues after conviction for the first such breach.
